5. NEW BUSINESS

5.1 Mayor's Memo on Fall and Spring Free Tipping (Councillor Strangway)

Task Force discussed the Mayor's Memo on Fall and Spring free tipping in 2018 and what exactly that would mean for residents. At this time unlimited leaf and yard waste will be received free at the CKL landfills as well as clear bag waste that complies with the clear bag policy. A method of tracking this free waste will need to be determined.

Moved By Councillor Pollard

Seconded By Councillor Macklem

RESOLVED THAT the discussion on the Mayor's Memo on Fall and Spring free tipping for 2018 be received for informational purposes.

CARRIED

5.2 Curbside Study Update (Angela)

Staff summarized the results of the Reclay curbside study highlighting the recommendations provided for potential changes to curbside pickup. Committee discussed Council's recommendation to negotiate an extension of the current curbside collection which is ongoing. Task force asked staff to provide clarification on the role of the Task Force and Council with this process.

Moved By Councillor Strangway

Seconded By Councillor Pollard

RESOLVED THAT the Investigation for Options for Efficient Curbside Collection for the City of Kawartha Lakes Report prepared by Reclay StewardEdge be received for information: and

THAT any proposed curbside changes be included in the next collection services RFP as provisional items for further Council consideration.

Councillor Pat Dunn excused himself at 1:55 p.m.
