6. Funding Working Group - Update

Heather Kirby sent out proposed recommendations Friday a.m. from the Working Group. Heather, Lynda, Rod and Amy met Friday p.m. to discuss what supports the City had to offer with regards to staffing supports and expertise. There will be some changes to the draft document already circulated, mostly around the Community Fund and City supports. The proposed recommendations presented for the 50/50 Fund and 2022 Lindsay Chest Funds will remain as they are.

Updates on the upcoming workshops this week, Wednesday has 17 registered and Thursday has 23 registered so far. Good response from the community, please continue to circulate information, registration is taken up to the start of the sessions.

Heather and Brenda have been working on a document based off Dr. Phillips Transformational Change presentation, to provide access to resources and supports for smaller agencies, organizations, groups and clubs that may not have provincial or national support networks. The document will be posted to 'Jump In' if it isn't already and will be provided to the participants of the workshops.

'Jump In' now has a list of resources that includes a pod cast, an event planning link for an on-line course, Ontario Trillium Fund and other available funds. Encourage registration to 'Jump In' to all contacts.
