5.2 Public Awareness (Public Education/Employment/Information&Communication)

E. Peeters provided a brief update that the focus is on the 2021 Accessibility Awards. They are accepting nominations until March 26th and the form is available on the Accessibility page on the City Website. Should anyone have any questions regarding the nomination process they are asked to contact B. Condie. The awards will be presented virtually at the Committee of the Whole Meeting on June 1, 2021. C. Morrissey advised that the session on Stress Management with Jack Veitch, Manager of Community, Engagement and Education for the Canadian Mental Health Association on February 12th, 2021 was well attended.

B. Condie advised the media release is going out today regarding the 2021 Accessibility Awards.

5.3 Public Spaces (Parks, Built Environment and Transportation (Transit))

A. O'Bumsawin advised he continues to review and offer recommendations on Site Plans. Some of the challenges are how to make the site more accessible with many stairs and ways of adapting the space to improve accessibility.

B. Condie advised that the Public Spaces Working Group had a great meeting and that S. Fox and M. Porteous were involved in helping to set up an online goggle page for the group to communicate and offer comments on Site Plans.

B. Condie advised that A. O'Bumsawin has prepared a document that introduces our Planners and Developers with statistics for our community with the number of people that are aging and have disabilities and the need for accessible housing.

B. Condie will be providing this within her report to Council for information purposes and showing the importance of the comments provided by the Public Spaces Working Group.

5.4 Councillor's Update

Councillor Elmslie provided an update stating that work is continuing in Lindsay and will be completed prior to the summer months. Improvements and upgrades to the downtown in Fenelon Falls is starting in March will stop for the summer months and restart in September to be completed by December of 2021. Access will be available to all stores during construction.

Councillor Elmslie stated it has been a busy winter with snow and working with the Public Works Division to improve the removal of snow and sidewalk plowing. This conversation is ongoing.

Councillor Elmslie stated that Council passed the budget and within that budget is funding for Pandemic relief for not for profits, business and organizations. If assistance is required they are urged to register on the City's website and the committee will be touch.

Councillor Elmslie stated that Council is trying to make Logie Street safer and more accessible. They have agreed to create designated bike lanes.
