We were given approval to encroach city property, License Agreement was sent, signed, etc... Then the COKL denied the encroachment because of new pictures that were sent to the city by parties unknown.

What we are talking about here is a garden shed (encroaching by 2-3'), kids play set, and a trampoline that is set up seasonally. Our house was purchased from the same people which now complain (131 Stanley Rd). We were led to believe that we owed the backyard, they built a house on the property line and now take issue with normal backyard items that have been there for 6-7 years. They have called the city approximately 8 times, MPAC, and the OPP in order to harass us. Of all the calls the only thing that was requested of us was to move our fire pit location, which was done promptly.

The Concession Allowance behind our house is used by every single home and cottage on our street. There are fences built through it, bunkies built on it, every house has a fire pit on it, garden sheds, gazebos, landscaping stone patios. Comparatively, our encroachments are very minor when you look at the entire concession allowance. We feel because we are trying to go through the proper channels and procedures to encroach on city property we are being singled out and treated differently then the rest of the residents on Stanley Rd.

Pictures will be provided closer to the date. Thanks.
