I need to reduce my second last water bill as it is was completely outrageous there is no explanation on my end and no explanation on the city's. I have had a plumber come in I have no leaks since that last bill my consumption has mysteriously gone back to normal but actually even lower. Which makes me think that there was something wrong with the old meter as nothing in my life has changed. I am one person in my house 90% of the time my husband is a truck driver (it would be nice to want to lower a bill to help out an essential worker who's gone from home 5 days a week). I have talked to everyone from my counsellor to the mayor assistant. Let me put the entire situation out on the table and maybe you will feel so inclined has to help reduce my bill.
