I will present an overview of our new volunteer service club SWANS Ontario with particular attention to the achievements of the Omemee Swans Club in our first year of operation. I will also seek the Committee's support in forming new clubs in Lindsay and in the Pontypool/Bethany area with the focus being on the benefits Swans Clubs can bring to these communities through both fundraising and service events. New clubs are fully sponsored by the initiating club and by SWANS Ontario, including education, training in running the new club and financial support to help get them off the ground.

I will be providing our first Annual Report and our informational brochure which is currently being revamped. I will drop of to the clerk's office at least a week before the meeting. Thank you
