Section 4: Location of Heritage Features

The primary heritage feature of the property is the early twentieth century school which is located on the north side of the lot.

Section 5: Statement of Reasons for Designation

Design and Physical Value

49 Glenelg Street West, also known as King Albert Public School, has cultural heritage value as a representative example of Beaux-Arts educational architecture in Lindsay. The building, which was constructed in 1913 as a replacement for an older public school serving the South Ward of Lindsay, demonstrates the key characteristics of Beaux-Arts educational design as executed in urban areas, including symmetrical massing with a central hall, large banks of windows on upper and lower storeys, and Classical design elements. The school is also demonstrative of trends in educational architecture which developed and matured in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century emphasizing new ideas regarding hygiene, ventilation, and safety incorporated into school design.

Historical and Associative Value

49 Glenelg Street West has historical and associative value in its role as a local public school. Opening in January 1915, the school was constructed as part of a general upgrade of education facilities in Lindsay in the early twentieth century related to the expansion of the education system and growth in public school pupils. It yields information regarding the development of education in Lindsay throughout the late nineteenth and early twentieth century in Lindsay as a long-standing public elementary school in the community, serving the suburban South Ward of the town.

Contextual Value

49 Glenelg Street West has cultural heritage value as part of the historic landscape of Lindsay's historic South Ward which includes a substantial collection of late nineteenth and early twentieth century architecture. The area is primarily residential and the school contributes to its suburban character as the neighbourhood school which was constructed at around the same time as a substantial portion of the surrounding houses. The property is also a local landmark as a long-standing public school in Lindsay and one of the primary institutional structures in the town's historic south end.

Section 6: Heritage Attributes

The Reasons for Designation include the following heritage attributes and apply to all elevations, unless otherwise specified, and the roof including: all façades, entrances, windows, chimneys, and trim, together with construction materials of wood, brick, stone, stucco, concrete, plaster parging, metal, glazing, their related building techniques and landscape features.

Design and Physical Attributes

The design and physical attributes support the value of the property as an representative example of an early twentieth century Beaux-Arts school in Lindsay.

- Two storey red brick construction
- Rectangular plan
- Symmetrical massing
- Projecting front bay including:
 - Recessed central entrance
 - Stairs
 - Single windows
- Hipped roof
- Wide eaves
- Rusticated concrete foundation
- Entrances including:
 - Double doors
 - Rounded transoms
 - Radiating voussoirs with keystones
- Fenestration including:
 - Banks of classroom windows
 - Single windows
 - Basement windows
 - Lug sills
 - Lintels
- Polychromatic decorative elements

Historical and Associative Attributes

The historical and associative attributes support the historical value of the property as a local public school which has remained in operation since the early twentieth century.

- Association with the history of education in Lindsay

Contextual Attributes

The contextual attributes of the property support the value of the property a local landmark and contributing feature to the historic suburban landscape of Lindsay's historic South Ward.

- Location at the intersection of Glenelg Street West and Cambridge Street North
- Orientation towards Glenelg Street West
- Views of the property from Glenelg Street West and Cambridge Street North
- Views of the surrounding historic properties from the school and grounds
