

Cemetery transfer and acceptance of the Municipality by Mutual Consent

Pursuant to subsection 101.1 (1) of the Funeral, Burial and Cremation Services Act, 2002 a cemetery may be transferred or declared abandoned to the municipality, if the owner of the cemetery,

- a) Cannot be found
- b) Is unable to maintain it, or
- c) Is not a licensed operator and there is no licensed operator for the cemetery.

In cases where neither the owner or an operator, whose consent had been obtained from the owner of the land upon which the cemetery is located, are unable to maintain the cemetery, the operation and maintenance of the cemetery becomes the responsibility of the local municipality.

By mutual consent of the landowner and/or the currently licensed cemetery operator and the municipality, the cemetery and the land on which it is located (listed below) is intended to be transferred to the municipality:
